

Please do not weaken the Indiana Do Not Call list by allowing organizations who have "established business relationship" to invade my home privacy by allowing them to call and solicit business. My home time is mine and I do not want to be bombarded by solicitation calls.